GALLIPOLIS.

THURSDAY, JULY 20, 1854

TAXES FOR 1854.—Some of our Democratic contemporaries have made much ado over the fact that the levy for State purposes on the grand duplicate for the present year is considerable less than for 1853—the amount for 1853 having been fifty-one cents on a hundred dollars to thirty-five cents and a half this year; and they have thus put forth the notion that the taxes for the present year were to be much less than last. But the figures show a different result, as will be made manifest to the good people of Gallia county at least when they have to fork over the dough; (no bills of a less denomination than ten dollars will be taken, except they have been issued by an Ohio bank!)—The re-appraisal of real estate and the no deduction principle has raised the taxable property of Gallia county from $2,653,989, the total for 1853, to $3,925,660, the total for 1854. On these sums at the different rates of the two years Gallia county will pay four hundred and two dollars more tax to the State this year than last—$13,936 for 1854 to $13,534 for 1853. An increase in each county in the State in the same proportion will raise a handsome sum to be distributed among the thousand and one hangers on of the present dominant party of the State.

Severe and onerous on the people as is and has been the demands of the State in the way of Taxes they must be convinced that there is no escape so long as they retain the present party in power. Year after year it is only worse and more of it.

During the prevalence of the unusual hot weather that we have had for the past few weeks, our town has been remarkably healthy, very few cases of sickness of any kind appearing in our midst; in fact fewer than usual at this season of the year. Nothing like a case of cholera has taken place in our town or neighborhood. The only one that bore any symptoms of a near approach to the much dreaded malady, was the sickness of Mr. A. Greenwood; he had perhaps, what might be called a severe attack of the Cholera Morbus, which was brought on entirely by his own imprudence.

We understand that he had been troubled with a severe diarrhoea for two or three days without attempting to check it, and when his system was very much weakened from the effects of it, he had the hardihood to partake of a large quantity of raw cherries, which brought on a severe attack of Cholera Morbus, but thanks to the skill of Dr. Rathburn and good nursing, he is over the attack, and is able to attend to his usual business. We trust this will be a warning to him, and also to our numerous readers, to avoid imprudence in diet and take remedies in all cases of this nature, in the first inception.

Our friend W. HARRY PEPPLES, with a large moustache and foreign air, stepped into our sanctum a few days since, which reminded us of "Auld Lang Syne." Harry, notwithstanding the many "scapes by fire and flood, still retains the beauty of youth, and bids fair to weather through many years to come. He is here on business, the nature of which he will make known to those concerned.

Judging from a number of smiling faces that we saw coming out of Edwards' Rooms, at Greenwood's building, the other day, they must have been pleased with the pictures they had in their hands. Well, no wonder, Edwards' likenesses are certainly most life-like and artistic; dress, eye and features are all depicted to the life. Numbers of our country friends are flocking to his rooms, and all go away perfectly satisfied. See his advertisement.

We witnessed the return of a small regiment of soldiers, Sunday evening, from the battle-field on the Chillicothe road, where they had fought John Barleycorn from early morn till close of day. To judge of the returning squad the fight must have been unequal, they all appeared very weary and about as blue as an indigo bag, probably the effects of the sun. One poor fellow, badly shot in the neck, rolled into Paint creek, where he remained until a baggage wagon was procured. Another's head got so big he could not get his hat on, and the hill by Weiberts so steep that with difficulty he gained level ground. They must have had a terrible fight, at the Forks, and to judge of the returning wounded many slept upon the battle-field that night the sleep that knows the waking to an aching head.

OUR NEIGHBOR AND ABOLITIONISM.—Our neighbor, after sleeping two weeks on the charge we made touching his abolition principles, came out last week with a flat denial that he had ever read the Porter abolition communication to a negro upon the public streets in this town. We suppose he bases the denial upon the principle that no man is a negro unless he is as black as charcoal, and to read the communication to a mulatto, with his way of thinking, is reading it to a white man. If he is reconciled by such notions we think him tarred with the blackest kind of abolition stick. We do not blame him for sympathizing with the colored race, for having been publicly cowarded in the streets of Point Pleasant, he bears natural scars with the fractions of the colored population of Virginia, and his thoughts and feelings would naturally revert to them. But for our neighbor to deny having read the abolition communication to a negro upon the streets is perfectly absurd, and to bring the matter to a focus we will make this proposition to him—if he will publish the names of all the white men (what he considers white) to whom he read the abolition document concerning us, we will publish the names of all the darkeys. If he will not accept of this proposition, as a matter of course he stands convicted in the eyes of all white men, other than abolitionists.

The fact is, our neighbor wishes to keep in the good graces of the Whigs, Democrats and Abolitionists, and to secure the support of the latter, it will be remembered that when he received this Porter abolition communication, he declined publishing it, giving as excuse that no name accompanied it, and at the same time made a milk-and-water statement concerning the insult offered Mr. Dyas and our severe comments thereon, which he thought he had made impartial. But the cloven foot of abolitionism stuck out like a darkey's heel. In that article he stated that—he knew no law to prevent the whites and blacks from dining at the same table. At the close of his article he requested the author of this anonymous Porter abolition communication to send his real name, and he (our neighbor) would give his private views upon the subject. Now how do these tally with the remarks in the last Courier—our neighbor finds that he is caught upon a spring hook, that he must either throw aside his abolition principles or stand confessed an abolitionist in the eyes of every man of principle. The change is made in a trice—he came out last week and cut the acquaintance of his Porter friends as nice as ever a pirate.

"Scuttled ship or cut a throat." But will this cutting of his Porter acquaintances change the man, his nature or his feelings, or convince the people of Gallia county that he is not still an abolitionist in his heart! The fact is our neighbor wishes to convince the Democrats that he is a dyed-in-the-wool Democrat, the Whigs that he is little the staunchest to be found, and the Abolitionists that he can beat the whole tribe in putting darkeys through upon the underground track, the latter probably the cause of his short stay in Virginia.

To judge of an expression in the article alluded to in the last Courier, one would be led to think our neighbor had the grit of a grindstone in him, but a greater coward and more slippery man can we have tried him in Gallia county. We have tried him in almost every possible manner and found him wanting in what constitutes a man.

We may next make him eschew his Democratic principles, after that his Whig, and then whittle him down to a sharp point and stick him in the ground.

Lamarine & Sullivan have sold their Daguerrian Yacht, and we understand are about fitting out another.

Fire.—We learn from a friend that "White Hall" tavern, in Burlington, belonging to, and kept by Dr. O. D. Owen, was entirely consumed by fire on Thursday night last. The fire originated in a smoke house, and communicated to the main building. The citizens worked energetically, and succeeded in saving a considerable portion of the household effects. The Doctor is of the opinion that it was the work of an incendiary.

The prospects of a thorough Whig victory in Pennsylvania, in October, increase daily. An experienced politician, of superior advantages for acquiring information on this subject, has recently returned from a long visit to that State, and gives it as his opinion that the Whig candidate for Governor, Mr. Pollock, will beat Gov. Bigler from 10,000 to 15,000 votes. He regards this result as inevitable and the election of a large majority of the delegation to the next Congress, by the Whigs, as equally inevitable.

It was further resolved to appoint a committee with power to dispose of the Crystal Palace and all other property of the Association, deliverable on or after the 1st day of November next.

"PERSONAL."—On the 29th ult. we replied to a personal article in the Guyandotte Herald, in a manner we deemed in accordance with the middlemost disposition of the author. We were led to make the allusion we did by the uncalculated and ungentlemanly personal remarks in relation to ourselves by the junior editor of that sheet. We thought then and still think that he was meddling with that which little concerned him, and could attribute his interference with our affairs in no other light than that actuating and governing those connected with the underground movements—a disposition to meddle with the rights of others. We could come to no other conclusion—an utter stranger to us, he took it upon himself to stab us from behind, however inflicting but a slight wound, and if we dealt him a severer one he can ascribe it alone to his middlemost disposition.

The Herald of the 7th inst. contains an article in reply to our remarks, in which the junior editor, instead of explanatory of his course, has seen proper to use language in keeping with the dastard onset upon us. He deals in low billingsgate as though schooled in it from infancy, and bandies the lie with as much non-chalance as would the devil—however, we are convinced he means little by it, we have heard the noise of wind-mills before, and were it not for the foul air would be little disturbed. Be that as it will, our business may probably call us to Guyandotte in a few weeks, when we shall take occasion to assist the gentleman to "spread himself." He splurges extensively about coming originally from Rockbridge county, Va., where, we presume, he made a start in the world as a gentleman, but to judge from his language, his associations since that time have had a tendency to weaken him, and what he is now time will develop.

The Directors of the Ohio Penitentiary have appointed the Rev. L. Warner, Moral Instructor of that Institution. Mr. Warner is a Methodist Preacher, stationed at Mt. Vernon, and was appointed, we presume, at the request of the present incumbent, Rev. Ira Norris, who retired voluntarily, satisfied that his own appointment was unconstitutional.

The banking house of Augusta Belmonte, in New York, was entered on the night of the 12th inst., and robbed of $140,000 in one thousand dollar notes on the bank of the State of New York.

MEXICAN AFFAIRS.—By the last steamer from the Pacific, we learn that the revolution in Mexico, far from being extinguished, is spreading like wildfire through all parts of the country. In Yucatan, Tehuantepec, Rio Verde, (State of San Luis,) Chihuahua and Chetla (State of Puebla,) Huajuapala Leon (State of Oajaca,) Tampico, Tula Tamaulipas, Tuxpan, (State of Vera Cruz,) and even in the State of Mexico itself, the banner of revolution has been raised, and from the evidences manifested themselves on every side, it is evident that the Dictator will not long be able to sustain himself in the possession of the supreme power. To crown his difficulties, the blockade of Acapulco has been raised by one of our own vessels, the Portsmouth, which accidentally got in there just in time. On the 3d of April, the commander of the Portsmouth rescued fifty Americans who had been captured on their way to Lower California, charged with being filibusters, on board a Chilean bark. But for the presence of the Portsmouth, all would probably have been shot.

Our millers are offering one dollar for wheat at the same time asking $7 00 per barrel for flour. Farmers think they should either raise the price of wheat or lower that of flour—if they can sell their flour at $7 they can afford to pay $1.25 for wheat. However wheat is quoted at $1.00 in Cincinnati, but we have heard of no sales at that price.

Phineas T. Barnum resigned his 'responsible post,' as President of the Crystal Palace, on the 10th inst.—Joseph H. White succeeds him pro tem. Mr. Barnum, in his letter of resignation, congratulates the Association on fair prospects.

A committee was appointed to obtain the services of an efficient Superintendent for the season, and it was resolved to finally close the exhibition on the 31st of October next.

The proposition of Senator Mason of Virginia, to authorize the payment, out of the U. S. Treasury, of the value of all the slaves that were captured and taken off by the English in the war of 1812, is creating considerable adverse discussion among the Journals of the Atlantic cities. It is to be remembered that negroes were not valued as highly then as now. Then there is the interest for forty years. Even at five per cent. interest, a negro worth but five hundred dollars then, would come to fifteen hundred dollars now.—Then there is the profits on the increase of stock.

Mr. John L. Blaine, who has a bagging manufactory in St. Louis, had his left hand caught in the spindles on Friday. He seized his left arm with his right hand, and being unable to extricate it, he actually held it until it was almost torn off above the wrist, every bone in his hand and wrist being literally cut to pieces. It was deemed necessary to amputate the arm, between the elbow and wrist, which was done.

Congress Doings.—A letter from Washington says the Civil and Diplomatic Appropriation Bill, which has passed the House in a moderate shape, will certainly be increased by several millions in the Senate, perhaps three or four. Per contra, there will be no River and Harbor Bill this session. No such bill can be got up now, without leading to an interminable discussion and delaying every other business.

The Know Nothings are in Gallia county, according to the advertisements of Henking & Cadot.

S. T. & R. Langley's stock is complete—go and examine for yourself. They want all kinds of Produce.

A COUNTERFEIT WORTH MORE THAN THE GENUINE.—The U. S. mint under instructions from the Secretary of the Treasury, has been examining some counterfeit coins in circulation, and among others they found Mexican dollar-pieces worth 109 cents. They, under assay, gave an average fineness of 776-1,000, and a consequent value of 914 cents in silver. The amount of gold contained in them is sufficient to add 12 cents to the value of each, after paying the charge of separating, making a net value of 103 cents, and if to this the usual premium on silver is added the worth of this counterfeit coin is actually 109 cents! It is not often that individuals are capable of the 'double dishonesty' of cheating the public and themselves at the same time.

CHURCH BURNING.—The circumstances of the burning of the church at Bath, Maine, are thus related by a paper of that town:

It appears the 'Angel Gabriel' was preaching in the street, and that a hack containing three men, drove through the crowd, and turning round immediately, attempted to return, the driver insisting that the crowd should give way.

This appears to have incensed those present, and soon after, about 7 P. M., a cry was simultaneously raised throughout the multitude, as if by previous concert, 'to the Old South,' 'hurra for the Old South,' 'down with the Old South,' &c. And thither the multitude immediately rushed. The church known as the 'Old South,' was built by Protestants in 1805, and leased by the Catholics two years ago. Upon reaching the spot the door was immediately broken open, and the mass rushed in, and immediately commenced demolishing the pews, breaking and destroying everything that could be reached, after which it was set on fire in about thirty places and entirely consumed. To the disgrace of the authorities, the incendiary mob, 1,500 in number, were permitted to leave without a single arrest.

Two Irishmen were going to fire off a cannon, just for fun, but being of an economical turn of mind, they did not wish to lose the ball. So one of them took an iron kettle in his hand to catch it in; and stationing himself in front of the loaded piece, he exclaimed to the other, who stood behind holding a lighted torch, 'Touch it off gently Jimmy.'

JUST received at the new Store of S. T. & R. LANGLEY, Dry Goods, Groceries, Hardware, Queensware, &c., &c. Our stock is now full and complete, and we are prepared to furnish Goods at wholesale and retail on the most favorable terms. Wanted, every kind of Produce, for which the highest market price will be paid. July 20, 1854.

Gunsmith Shop. THE subscriber takes this method of informing the public that he has opened a GUN SHOP in Gallipolis, a few doors below Robert Ward's corner, at the lower end of the Public Square, on Second street. Guns will be kept on hand and also made to order. All work warranted to give satisfaction. JAMES GILMORE. July 13, 1854.—3m

TO BUSINESS MEN.
A Fine Opening. THE SUBSCRIBER, having purchased the interest of Chas. Barrin the business of the late firm of Wm. Elden & Co., and being desirous to decrease his business, will sell out his entire WHOLESALE STOCK OF Dry Goods, and good will thereunto. This branch of business has become important, in this market, a large portion of the trade being done with the Furnace region, and the balance in this and neighboring counties, which is unequalled for stability in any section of country. This opportunity presents unusual advantages to persons wishing to engage in business. The stock will be sold upon liberal terms. Applications will be received until the first of August next. WM. ELDEN. Portsmouth, July 13, 1854.—4w

MANILLA ROPE. COILS pure Manilla Rope, different sizes just received from manufacturers, and for sale low at HENKING & CADOT'S. Feb. 23, 1854.

D. 1854, at 2 o'clock P. M. on said day. SAMUEL B. RATHBURN, Probate Judge for Gallia county, Ohio. July 13, 1854.—3w

DISSOLUTION.

THE partnership heretofore existing under the name of Ford & Drouillard, is this day dissolved by mutual consent. All persons indebted to the late firm are requested to make immediate payment to D. S. Ford, who is authorized to settle the business of the same. D. S. FORD. S. B. DROUILLARD. Gallipolis, July 1, 1854.

TO THOSE WHO INTEND

PURCHASING A PIANO this year, we beg leave to say that between this and the 1st of August will be the most favorable time to do so, if price is any consideration. We shall leave our old and well known stand about that time, and, wishing to reduce our stock as much as possible, for that purpose, will sell a first class Piano Forte at from 10 to 15 per cent. less than usual prices.—It is generally known that our stock consists principally of Chickering's, Woodward & Brown's; T. Gilbert & Co.'s (with Eolian attachment) and J. Wencester's Pianos—instruments which cannot be surpassed, as numerous certificates, and the diplomas they have so often received for superiority over other instruments, must fully substantiate.—Do not let this opportunity pass for obtaining a very fine Piano at a very low price; for we assure you such a chance as the present may never again be offered. Guitars, Accordions, Violins, Brass Instruments, Sheet Music and Music Books on the same terms. Last, not least, Geo. A. Prince & Co.'s superior Melodeons. COLBURN & FIELD. Cincinnati, July 13, 1854.

NOTICE.

HAVING purchased of Mr. S. B. Drouillard his interest in the wholesale and retail Grocery, corner of Court and Third streets, returns thanks for the patronage heretofore extended, and by diligence and promptness to business hopes to be favored with a continuance of the same. I have every article needed in the Grocery and Produce line, which can be bought as cheap as in any store in town. Call and examine for yourselves. July 6, '54. D. S. FORD.

Mary McKean, adm'r of William McKean, deceased, vs. Nancy Heddinger and others.

Petition to sell lands.

IN pursuance of an order of sale made in this case, by the Probate Court, within and for the county of Gallia, Ohio, on the 17th day of June, A. D. 1854, I will offer for sale on the premises, on the 15th day of August, A. D. 1854, at the hour of one o'clock P. M. of said day, the following real estate, to-wit: The southeast half of the following described tract of land, containing fifty acres, more or less, situated in the county of Gallia, and State of Ohio, and in the southwest corner of fraction No. 30, in township No. 4, of Range No. 15, in the Ohio Company's Purchase, and described as follows, to-wit: beginning at the southwest corner of said fraction, running thence East along the south line of said fraction to a stake at the southwest corner of a tract sold off of said fraction by Thomas Dewitt to Isaac Dewitt, thence north to a bench tree, being the northwest corner of the tract of land sold off of said fraction by Thomas Dewitt to Isaac Dewitt, thence thence in a north direction to a hickory tree near the top of a ridge being the southeast corner of a tract of land sold by Bazal McFarland to Jesse Lewis out of the northwest corner of said fraction, thence west to a white oak on the west line of said fraction, being the southwest corner of said tract of land sold by Bazal McFarland to Jesse Lewis as aforesaid, thence south along the west line of said fraction to the place of beginning. Said premises will be sold unincumbered by the dower of the said Mary McKean, widow of the said William McKean, deceased. Appraised at $162 50. Terms of sale—one-third cash in hand, one-third in six months, the residue in one year, with interest from the day of sale, to be secured by mortgage on the premises. MARY MCKEAN, Adm'r of William McKean, dec'd. July 6, 1854.—5w

"Secure the shadow ere the substance fade."

WHAT better memento can be given to those we love and cherish, and from whom we are about to be separated, "it may be for years, and it may be forever," than a faithful resemblance of ourselves. How pleasant to look upon when the dear one is wandering afar off, or perhaps dead. What a melancholy, yet a pleasing recollection to ponder upon each well known feature, and call up pleasant memories, as we trace each lineament of the absent one, that the imagination is sometimes carried away, and we almost fancy we hear his "foot fall on the stairs." Hasten then while you have the opportunity and secure a correct picture, not one that you have to turn to all points of the compass, before you can catch a bare resemblance, but a fine, bold, artistic picture that can at once be recognized by everybody. D. L. EDWARDS, from Cincinnati, has opened a room in Gasconade Building, second street, where he will remain for a few days for the purpose of taking in the first style of the art. He has a large instrument of very powerful construction, for the purpose of taking correct pictures of children and aged persons, whereby the time generally occupied for sitting is reduced one-half. An instrument of this kind has long been desired by artists, and he has had the good fortune to procure one. Pictures taken in any weather, and put up in handsome morocco cases, lined with silk velvet, for $1 50. Also, a large assortment of Paper Maché, Vases, Plush, Shell, Book and fancy cases cheap. Portraits, Miniatures, Daguerreotypes and engravings copied. Likenesses set in Lockets, Bracelets and finger-rings. Call and see specimens, and pictures guaranteed equal to them. Don't forget, second story of Greenwood's building. June 29, 1854.
